TWELVE MONTHS IN JAIL .- In the Hustings Court on Saturday Mahala Johnson, er on petition of executrix to be allowed to who was charged with stealing six dollars compensate counsel out of fund now on from the person of a negro countryman, appeared for trial. The accused withdrew her plea of not guilty entered in her former trial, and pleaded guilty to the charge of petit larceny. She then waived ber right to trial by jury, and submitted her cause to the judge, who sentenced her to imprisonment in the city jail for twelve months.

EXCITEMENT AT THE POLICE COURT-A PRI-SONER ATTEMPTS TO ESCAPE.-Among the many parties brought before Justice White on Saturday for keeping unlicensed dogs was a negro named Henry Sims, or Gaines, who was awaiting his turn in the part of the court-room allotted to the prisoners, and divided off by a partition about seven feet high. Suddenly Sims jumped from his seat and sprang over the partition with such celerity that the officer scarcely kne: ... the movement until he was on his way to the door of the court-room. Everything was in a commotion for a minute, but the fugitive was instantly pursued and intercepted at the door by a member of the bar who happened to be coming in, and was brought back by the officers. The cause of the attempted escape was explained by the fact that Sims had discovered Detective O'Dwyer, who had a warrant for his arrest upon a charge of housebreaking and steal-

Justice White committed the prisoner for examination upon the warrant for felony. The affair caused no little excitement in the court for a short time, and was the occasion of an amusing chase.

THE DEATH OF CESPEDES CONFIRMED.

HAVANA, March 7 .- The report of the killing of ex-President Cespedes by some of the members of the San Quentin battalion is confirmed. It appears that on the 27th ordered by their commander to shoot him The negro promised if his life was spared to lead them to a spot where Cespedes could be found. This was assented to, and the ex-President was discovered with a few friends five leagues from Aserradero. His companions succeeded in getting away, but he could not escape, and while closely pursued by a detachment of troops, led by a sergeant, he turned and fired six shots from his revolver. This was returned by the troops, and Cespedes received bullets in the head and breast, causing instant death. His body was brought to Santiago de Cuba and buried on the 1st instant.
